leviable thereon, as in any about previous exemption of tax sanctioned in Petitioner's case

2 The Amildar has inspected building site. He states that the is still in progress and that if com pleted, there will be room for 5 shops, that the petitioner has not explained the nature of the shops, and that, in case common rice shops are opened to suit the convenience of travellers, the shop tax for each would be Rs. 4, and that the total tax for the new shops would be 20 Rupees per annum.
Rupees 4 the Mohaturfa due on an old shop have already been exempted as a special case. Vide Dewan's Pro: ceedings No. 7067/408 of 8 ~~February~~ December 1881.

3. Considering the large exemption Petitioner will get, undersigned recommend that the exemption be made conditional on petitioner

Keeping the chattaram in good order and always available for travellers, and that a Moochilika be taken from him to this effect.
